The CIGRE SA Annual Dinner is one of the highlights on the CIGRE calendar. Members, conference delegates, exhibitors and stakeholders get together, network and make memories – an evening of good food, good music and best of all, good company.

Here's what you can expect...

The feast begins with delicious homemade soup and honey bread. While you sip on a 'Dawa' (the traditional house cocktail of vodka, honey and lime), a Lazy Susan with a small flag on top, is placed in the centre of your table, bearing six different fresh salads and various sauces to compliment your meal.

Waiters circulate wielding Masaaai spears with a wide variety of game and domestic meats, ranging from beef, chicken, boerewors and pork to ostrich, kudu and crocodile, to name just a few - all charcoal-grilled and expertly carved directly onto your hot cast-iron plate. Traditional 'pap' and sauce, and a baked potato accompany this sumptuous meal.

You may eat as much as you wish, and when you have had your fill, you surrender by lowering the flag! To finish off the meal, there is a selection of delicious desserts, accompanied by tea or coffee.

Come and enjoy a "Beast of a Feast" !
